Dear Joshua,

Applause and accolades are in order for Raggs and the All-Star Swing Society, the Ragg Dolls and Sheila Ford. Our daughter's wedding reception, May 19, 2001, was a fantastic and eloquent evening of dancing and entertainment given impetus by Scot Ragsdale and his magnificent band and vocalists.

Superb in its musicianship and professional presentation, the band brought our guests, young and old, to the dance floor and kept them there. The bride's Grandpa, at 91, was in his glory waltzing with his lady. Everyone loved the Big Band music which not only kept them tappin' their toes, but singing along at their tables.

Our family and friends were lavish in their expressions of delight:

"We never experienced a wedding like this one!"

"This is a fabulous night!"

"Where did you find this band!?"

"Thank you for giving us such marvelous music."

"This band is great. Not only can we dance, we can enjoy talking without shouting. The amp is just right."

From the "First Dance" to the final, bring down the house, rendition of "Sing, Sing, Sing", the band gave one dazzling performance. We didn't want the evening to end!

Sincerely,
